Lets talk food

Our weddings are led from the kitchen and at Leytonstone Tavern, that means food created with care, passion and personality.

Our Head Chef and owner, Jamie, brings years of experience and a love for seasonal cooking to every menu he creates,. The team will work closely with you to design bespoke menus that reflect your style and the mood of your celebration, whether that's a full wedding breakfast, relaxed sharing plates, a garden BBQ or late-night party food.

Sustainability and quality are central to what we do. We use the best fresh produce we can source, working with trusted suppliers and adapting menus around what's tasting best at the time. Expect vibrant salads, delicious canapés, generous platters of perfectly cooked meats and vegetables, all expertly prepared, beautifully served, and full of flavour.

We love creating food experiences that bring people together. From generous banquets to casual informal dining, we make sure every meal suits the way you want to celebrate. Food is at its best when it's sociable and abundant, but if your event calls for a more formal touch, we're equally happy to serve elegant individual plates. Whether it's a laid-back feast or a classic three-course celebration, we'll tailor the service to match the atmosphere you're after.

It's about making food that brings people together, cooked simply, with love.

Woodies

Intimate, atmospheric, and full of charm.

Woodies is a beautifully styled space tucked just off the main room perfect for hosting smaller wedding dinners and more intimate celebrations. It's a space that feels both personal and elevated — ideal for couples wanting a more low-key celebration without compromising on style.

As the sun goes down, Woodies takes on a new energy — transforming into your own private party room. The fully stocked bar keeps drinks flowing, and the built-in sound system and flexible layout make it the perfect setting for a DJ, live band, or curated playlist to take over. With low lighting, a buzzing atmosphere, and our statement mirror ball reflecting light across the room, it's a space made for letting loose, dancing hard, and ending the night in true East London style.
